Help and support for public transport employees in need

TBF helps working members and their dependants with...

- Cash help if you are in short-term hardship*
- Legal advice on non-employment matters
- Complementary medical treatments - including osteopathy, reflexology, homeopathy, aromatherapy, hypnotherapy, counselling, acupuncture and herbal medicine
- Second opinions and generous help with scans and tests
- Chiropody and physiotherapy
- Convalescence and recuperation
- Welfare advice
- Medical equipment not available from the State
- Prescription season tickets if you have a continuing medical condition that means you need one
- Bereavement benefit if you lose your partner or dependent child

* Cash help is intended to relieve hardship where you are off sick (typically for two weeks or more) or hit other unexpected problems.

We think you will be pleased with your TBF membership but, if you decide within the first month that you have made a mistake in joining, you can not only leave TBF but also be refunded the cost of your initial contribution.

TBF membership is open to everyone engaged in public transport in Great Britain, at the discretion of the trustees. This leaflet outlines the main benefits of membership. From time to time we are able to offer new benefits or it may be necessary to vary those on offer. All benefits are granted at the discretion of the trustees, in accordance with our rules and explanatory leaflets available on our website or on request. We shall recover tax on your contributions unless you have deleted this option on the application to join, or tell us later that you do not wish us to do this.
