DRIVER CPC TRAIN THE TRAINER COURSES UP AND RUNNING

The only Driver CPC Train the Trainer course approved by a national awarding body is now live! Specialist has now run the first two of the EDI* Train the Trainer for Driver CPC courses. Unlike other Train the Trainer courses, the approval by a national awarding body demonstrates its higher standards and means it will be regularly audited by EDI. Needless to say, it is recognised as evidence of training qualification by the Joint Approvals Unit for Periodic Training (JAUPT). The next courses are running:

27th April – 1st May
22nd – 26th June
27th – 31st July

*(Education Development International)

DON'T LET TRAINING SLIPPAGE BECOME A PROBLEM

Just in case you hadn't noticed, as of 10th September 2008, Driver CPC started. This means that for Bus & Coach companies by March 2009, 10% (6 months) of the first five years of Driver CPC has already gone! It would be interesting to see how many companies have already got 10% of the training completed.

The point to make here is that it is very easy in today's busy world to let training slip into the background. If this happens with Driver CPC it will be very hard to play catch up in the last few years.

Don't forget, on 10th September 2013 it will be illegal for drivers to drive commercially if they have not completed the appropriate training.

CASE STUDY

A client who had recently attended the free "Train your Own" Seminar decided that training their own drivers would be the most cost effective solution to Driver CPC. The client subsequently booked five of their employees on the EDI Train the Trainer course. On successful completion of the course they attended two Driver CPC courses on Drivers Hours and Digital Tachograph and Customer Service to see how the courses are delivered. Following these courses the Client asked us to bespoke two similar courses for their trainers to deliver. Once through the JAUPT approval process our client can start delivering their own Driver CPC!
